The barracks on Andrassystrasse, Bekescsaba (R 16/0 91), was restored during the Summer of 1949. Only few Hungarian soldiers were seen in the barracks up to 20 November 1949, when recruits arrived.

The troops quartered in the barracks on 26 November 1949 were estimated at about 200. They were referred to as artillery troops by the local population. [REDACTED] no 25X1X guns in the barracks area and definitely believed that there were no guns up to the day of his flight.
